KAREN WYSOPAL is a Boston native and self-taught painter living in Corvallis, Oregon. She works in various mediums, primarily in alcohol ink; a vibrant, fast-drying ink known to make stunning designs on non-porous surfaces. Karen's paintings are born of "curiosity and experimentation - a piece is complete for me when it speaks of something beyond the materials that make it up." Karen traces her artistic roots to childhood, sketching her pets and scenery around her home. At age nine, her illustrated story, "Gerbils and Other Stories" was published in Big Rock Candy Mountain. Her work has since been exhibited in numerous galleries in Oregon and California, and has been licensed for book covers. Scan the QR code to learn more about Karen:

SUIBOKUGA (ink-wash) or "literati painting" uses Japanese sumi ink on washi paper with gold leaf. Traditionally the art of master calligraphers, artist Tadashi's use of Suibokuga is inspired by modern life: he tries to express the "things one cannot sense with the eyes alone - summer flowers, starry skies, clouds at sunset." Tadashi's cards are embellished with gold foil. See more online:

BLANK & BOXED NOTES Father Arthur Poulin

FATHER ARTHUR POULIN holds the unique distinction as the only monk in the Allport family of artists. Painting at the Incarnation Monastery in Berkeley, CA, Father Arthur strives to reflect the “stunning, sacred beauty that is mirrored everywhere in Creation.” His landscapes take months to complete, starting with 25 layers of black gesso on each canvas before using the smallest of brush strokes to add color and texture. TWO CAN is a collaboration between Patti Gay and her son Noah, who is autistic. Noah creates painted textures that become the palette from which Patti creates beautiful, layered images. In addition to his fingers, Noah employs sponges, brushes, rollers, spray bottles and bubbles to create textures using acrylics, watercolor, gouache, foam, and more! Patti then manipulates these textures into fun animal portraits. Scan QR code to learn more and see Two Can's Holiday Collections online:

KIM CONWAY lives in a Montana cabin surrounded by birds, foxes, and the occasional bear - animals that are lovingly depicted in all of her artwork. Kim crafts her hand-rendered greeting card designs in a playful and colorful cut-paper collage style. She loves the "process of exploration inherent in creating the individual layers" of each new work. When not creating art, Kim spends time gardening, hiking, and floating down the river.
