Hello!

It's amazing to see how much can change in a year—and yet it's clear that greeting cards continue to hold their place in people's hearts. Even as technology races ahead, more and more individuals are embracing the meaningful, lasting beauty of sending a card. This isn't a fading tradition—it's a thriving one.

There's something enduring about paper: the texture, the artwork, the personal touch of a handwritten message. A greeting card still says what no text or email can. It celebrates moments big and small and strengthens the bonds that matter most.

I'm proud to introduce our 2026 Everyday Catalog, filled with fresh designs and inspiring art from our incredible team of creators. Each year, I am reminded how grateful I am for our extended Gina B family—our retailers, reps, vendors, and partners—who make it all possible.
